Applying for: Obedience Rally Games

Canine – Work And Games was created to provide a venue which provides an encouraging and fun atmosphere for both and dog and handler, while still setting standards the team must achieve in order to qualify.

Step One – We would like to know a little about you - Submit:

A brief history / resume of your dog experience. Some items to include if applicable:

- ♦ Dog clubs / organizations you belong to
- ♦ Any positions held in a club / organization, involvement in trials
- ♦ Judging experience at trials / matches – any venue
- ♦ Titles you have earned with your dogs
- ♦ Any instructor experience, seminars / clinics attended or taught
- ♦ Other relevant information
- Why you would like to judge for C-WAGS, what attracted you to C-WAGS.
- Goals you have with your dog(s)
- What levels / classes do you feel that you are able to judge
- Name and contact information (e-mail preferred) for two references that are familiar with your experiences, such as trainers, students, or exhibitors.

Send completed application along with the $10 application fee for your first ever application. Subsequent applications have no fee. (Mailed checks or money orders on Canadian banks must include an additional $6 for bank fee.) Payments can be made through the Paypal link on Trial Host on-line payment page and the application can be emailed to c-wags@sbcglobal.net

Or mailed to: C-WAGS % Shirley Ottmer
 3693 Fairview Ave, Jackson, MI 49203

Step Two – Accepted applicants will receive the written test to complete. The first test submission fee is $20 and includes a name tag. Any subsequent tests for any of our programs will have a $15 fee. Requests to increase class level approvals will have a $10 fee.

It is an honor and a privilege, not a right to judge for Canine Work And Games, LLC. An applicant must consistently display the highest level of ethical conduct, impartiality, professional behavior, and dedication to upholding the rules and philosophy of C-WAGS. Judging privileges may be denied or revoked for failure to meet these standards.

As a judge:

- ♦ I recognize that everyone's successes are relevant to their and their dog's personal situation.
- ♦ I will always strive to apply judging criteria consistently according to the rules as written
- ♦ I will act in an honest and ethical manner when interacting with the public and providing dog related services.
- ♦ When handling my own dog, I will never conduct myself in such a manner that it will reflect poorly on C-WAGS or the sport of dog competition.
- ♦ I will strive to create a professional, yet friendly atmosphere in my ring.
- ♦ I will judge at least once every eighteen months and always stay involved and current with any changes.
- ♦ I grant permission for C-WAGS LLC to publish my name, email address and phone on the Judge listing on the web site.
