To be approved for higher levels, you must have been approved for at least 9 months and have judged the majority of your approved classes at least 6 times. Based on previous test taken, a test covering the requested classes may be required.

Additional factors that will be taken into consideration include:

- Having completed additional educational classes
- Are personally competing at a higher level since original application
- Apprenticing with an approved judge at the higher level you are requesting
- Other organizations judging history

JUDGING HISTORY – Approximate date and counts are acceptable

APPRENTICING:

To apprentice in a higher class, contact a Trial Host and request to Apprentice at their trial. Contact should be a minimum of two weeks before the trial date. Once approval is given by the Host, you may contact the judge the Host recommends you apprentice with. Every effort should be made by Trial Host and judges to accommodate and mentor an Apprenticing judge.

- Only one Apprenticing judge is allowed per class.
- Apprenticing Judges may enter any class they are not apprenticing in.
- Trial Host must provide additional score sheets for the Apprenticing Judge’s use.
- Apprentice must follow precise instructions of the judge and never interfere with the activities of the judge or in any way delay judging.
- At the conclusion of the class, the apprenticing and officiating judge will briefly discuss the results of the class.
- Compensation will not be given to an Apprenticing judge.
